We understand that we are auditioning for a Studio C performance group. We understand that once we are selected for the team, we are obligated to fulfill our membership on the team through May 31, 2018. Membership includes but is not limited to: attending required weekly required classes, attending extra rehearsals, attending required workshops/conventions/choreography sessions, maintaining and building dance skills through the course of the summer, traveling out of state, making monthly installments for fees as it pertains to you, participating in some required fundraisers, have good attendance, a good work ethic, good sportsmanship and a positive attitude. Membership must be exclusive to Studio C, which means members are not allowed to participate with another private dance studio group while a member of a Studio C performance group. Public school dance teams are not considered a private studio dance group. However we expect you to make the Studio C Dance Company your dance group priority. We also understand that all decisions made by the Studio C faculty are final and are not to be disputed.
